

Nexø Seed Snacks

from Master Baker Karsten Mortensen, Nexø

Nexø Seed Snacks is neither a traditional biscuit or a crispbread, but a crisp, slightly porous combination of flaxseeds, sesame seeds, pumpkin seeds and sunflower seeds, thus the name: Seed Snacks.

The taste is full-bodied, balanced and semi-sweet, although no sugar has been added. Only good baking craftsmanship. Seed Snacks were developed by master baker Karsten Mortensen, of Nexø, and have become incredibly popular in record time.

Nexø Seed Snacks are ideal for cheese platters, late afternoon snacks, or pleasant moments over a cup of tea or coffee.
