

The Craftsman's Ketchup

The Craftsman's Ketchup is a ketchup with no frills about it. It is organic and consists only of sun-ripened tomatoes from Southern Europe, fresh onions, vinegar and salt.

The Craftsman's Ketchup is produced at Smedens Sauce (The Craftsman's Sauce) in Aakirkeby; the originator being a blacksmith of profession himself, hence the name.

Smedens Sauce is a new company, founded on a passion for tomatoes and chili and with the addition of good craftsmanship.

The ketchup is available in a handsome 250 g jar and a practical 500 g squeezable bottle. The Craftsman's Ketchup has an unmistakable taste of tomatoes and will add a smile to the face of any ketchup lover. The Craftsman's Ketchup makes a perfect accompaniment to sausages and can of course be used in marinades etc.
